

I do not think the FCC should weaken the protection the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law provides. Since this law has been in effect the Telemarketing calls I have recieved has been reduced dramatically. My home life is more enjoyable now due to the fact I am doing what I want, instead of telling salesmen I am not interested. This is a good thing, please leave it as is. Thank you.